

FASCINATING FAIRFIELD!

The Fairfield Association invites you to TWO events exploring how LANCASHIRE ARCHIVES can help you unearth the rich & diverse history of Lancaster's Nature Reserve and surroundings.

ABOUT LANCASHIRE ARCHIVES

Vicci McCann, Senior Archivist

*Thursday 12 March, 7.30pm
at The Music Room, The Storey, Meeting House Lane, Lancaster*

A presentation of Fairfield-related resources held by the Archives, and how to get the best use of the Archive service.

This event is funded by the Fairfield Association. A small donation to help with the costs of room hire is appreciated.

AN INTRODUCTION TO LANCASHIRE ARCHIVES

Vicci McCann, Senior Archivist

*Thursday 19 March, 10.30-12 noon
at Lancashire Archives, Bow Lane, Preston (5 mins walk from Preston railway station, next to County Hall)*

Visit the archives in Preston, and learn about the wide range of historical resources held there, and see maps and other records relating to Fairfield Nature Reserve and area. If you wish to stay and use the Archives, please bring ID - something(s) with your name, address and signature on.

Optional meet-up at Lancaster Railway Station, Platform 4 for the 9.48am train (£8.60 return fare per adult)

www.fairfieldassociation.org

Registered charity no. 1058030